
About Us

Cyclone Table Tennis Club is a newly founded non-profit association. It is the largest and the best table tennis club in southwest Edmonton. Our fair game rules and our professional equipment and facilities ensure that our members have the best environment to enjoy their game and to improve their skills.

CTTC is a community-oriented club. It provides opportunities for the local residents and any interested people to participate in the sport of table tennis for the purposes of recreation, physical fitness and skill development through friendly competition and junior coaching programs.
